OLDER BOYS RETURN

Delegation To Lynchburg Conference Report Delightful Time

The Alexandria delegation of the Y. M. C. A., Older Boys' Conference returned yesterday afternoon a delighted bunch of "older boys." The conference began Friday afternoon and closed Sunday night. It was the sixth older boys' conference to be held in the state.

The conference speakers were Arthur N. Cotton, of New York, International Secretary for Boys' Work, of the Y. M. C. A., Dr. Henry Louis Smith, President of Washington and Lee University, C. B. Loomis, of Atlanta, Regional Director of Boys' Work for the South, and Mimms W. Lee, State Secretary of the Virginia Y. M. C. A.

Twenty-six high schools were represented at the conference from all over the state and Alexandria's delegation was one of the largest, considering the distance from Lynchburg. Charlottesville had the largest delegation, twenty-eight comprising the group of delegates and leaders. The conference selected Charlottesville as the meeting place for the conference next year.

Alxandria's delegation included Marshall Travers and John Sherman Fowler, Jr., of St. Paul's Sunday School, Clark Slaymaker, of the Second Presbyterian Sunday School, Howard Baggett, of the M. E. South, Keith Wade, of the First Baptist, Eugene Jackson, representing the student body of Alexandria High School, and Kirk Earle Wallace, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who was head of the delegation.

Lynchburg entertained the conference in Christian homes and the local boys report royal entertainment, two of them being entertained in the home of the mayor of the city.

HELD FOR GRAND JURY

Outcome of Capture of Still Yesterday by Police

Following a preliminary investigation made today in the police court James and George McDonald were held for the action of the grand jury. Both men were taken in custody yesterday following a raid made by the police at the residence of James McDonald, on Hunting Creek at the Broomilaw brickyard at which time a still, oil stove and quantity of mash were captured. Both men disclaimed ownership. The men are brothers, and George McDonald claims to have come to Alexandria several weeks ago from Asheville, N. C.

TO OPEN STORE HERE

N. Frank And Sons To Locate at 1106 King Street

Alexandria's newest business enterprise will open to the public in a few days when N. Frank and Sons, big retailers of surplus army and navy stocks will open a store at 1106 King street.

The building, which is the property of Abe L. Cohen, well known local clothier, has been remodeled and presents the appearance of a brand new building. Mr. Frank is already moving his stock of goods to this city and the store, when opened for business will present a variety of merchandise that will be appreciated by every shopper in the city.

Mr. Cohen is also remodeling the building adjoining 1106 on the west and hopes to have it ready for occupancy by January 1, 1922. The opening of these stores will probably mean a building boom at the upper part of the city and several other buisness men are planning to build or remodel properties in this section of the city.

VOTE TODAY ON RATIFICATION OF PEACE PACT

Claim That German Treaty Will Win, Although By Very Small Margin

AMENDMENTS LOST

Senators Reed, of Missouri, and Watson, of Georgia, Launch Bitter Attack Against Treaty.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The peace treaties will be voted on before the Senate adjourns tomorrow night and there is every indication that vote will be for ratification of the pacts without amendment or reservation beyond those agreed to in the first instance, which have been described in the State Dearment as merely verbal changes that do not require further negotiations with Germany.

The count at the close of today's session, according to the Democrats, was 29 for rejection—4 short of enough. That is a remarkable showing considering that Leader Underwood and former Leader Hitchcock have been for the treaty since the beginning.

There will be no compromise—the defeat of two amendments proposed by Walsh, of Montana, and one offered by Reed, of Missouri, by an overwhelming vote on both sides means that the treaty must be accepted or rejected "as is."

Reed's amendments proposed a blanket clause freeing the United States from all obligations under

WASHINGTON DAY BY DAY

(From Our Special Correspondent)

Washington, Oct. 18.—"Looking into the situation" and "awaiting developments" are two popular phrases at the various executive departments just at this time when a strike of railroad employees seems imminent. If you ask a Cabinet official if there is any news, he answers you with either one or the other of the expressions noted above. And that is about all that you will get out of him.

Naturally, the administration, from President Harding down, is keenly alive to the consequences that would follow a walk-out on the part of the railway workers and they are bending all their efforts to prevent such a disaster from being visited upon the nation. But if they see any settlement of the differences between employers and employees they are keeping their own council and there has been no hint of a solution thrown out to the general public up to date.

Col. Charles R. Forbes, Managing Director of the Veteran's Bureau has a habit of visiting around among the different departments of his bureau. Hardly half a hundred clerks know him by sight and he very frequently drops in upon them to see how they are progressing in their work.

The other day, Col. Forbes visited one of the divisions of his office and turning to one of the young female employees, who was busy operating an adding machine said:

"What are you doing?"

"I'm working. What do you think I am doing?" Can't you see.?

The Colonel seemed very much amused at the incident, but when the clerk was told that she had addressed the head of the bureau she almost fainted.

Royal A. Haynes, U. S. Prohibition Commissioner calls attention to the fact that simply because the imports of distilled spirits from abroad were greater during the month of August. 1921 than for the same period in 1920 this does not mean that the country is getting vast quantities of intoxicating liquors from foreign countries. Haynes explains the increase in imports by pointing out that foreign spirits and wines are favored by many physicians for medicinal purposes and that many religious bodies prefer French, Spanish, Italian or Palestine wines to domestic wines for sacramental purposes.

Urban Ledoux, self-styled Apostle of the unemployed, who conducted an "auction" sale in Boston recently of some of the jobless, is a frequent visitor to the White House these days. The "Zero Man" as he is sometimes referred to is just now taking a deep interest in the threatened strike of railway employees. He says they have every right to strike and that he will forestall any attempt of strike breakers to take the place of the men when they vacate their positions. Apparently, he does not seem to fear a possible jail sentence for his activities in this respect.

President Harding is going to mingle with the "folks" in Virginia during the next couple of days. He leaves Washington tonight on board the Mayflower for a trip to Williamsburg to attend the installation of the new president of William and Mary College. After he has delivered an address here. he will visit the historic cities of Jamestown and Yorktown, returning to Washington Thursday morning. The Chief Executive long ago expressed a desire to look over some of the historic spots in the Old Dominion and took advantage of the first opportunity afforded him. He is assured of a royal welcome by the natives.

It is expected that at the next executive session of the Senaten the nomination of Jesse S. Cottrell, of Knoxville, Tenn., as U. S. Minister to Bolivia will be confirmed. "Jess" as he is familiarly known at the National Capital, has been one of the most prominent Washington correspondents for a number of years, covering assignments for a batch of Southern newspapers. He is popular with the statesmen on Capitol Hill and there is not the slightest doubt but that he will make a record for himself and the nation he represents upon the assumption of his ministerial duties in the South American country.

"Andy" Mellon, Secretary of the Treasurery who is 66 years old says he will walk all the way from the Capitol to the Arlington National Cemetery on Armistice Day when the body of the unknown American soldier is interred in that historic burial ground.

Y.M.C.A. CLASSES

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., announces a most gratifying start of their fall work for women and girls. Last Monday 18 women and 40 girls appeared for gymnasium classes at the Westminster Building where the classes are being held this year.

Wednesday evening 12 women appeared for the dressmaking class at the Chamber of Commerce. Thursday afternoon at the same place 38 girls reported for the first lesson in cooking. Friday evening 8 women made up the beginning class in home nursing, and at the same time 5 women were enrolled in the first class in cooking being conducted for them.

Saturday afternoon 60 girls reported filled while additional enrollmakes a splendid total of 181 women and girls actually enrolled in the classes of the Auxiliary to date.

Some of the classes are now reported filed while additional enrollments will be accepted in some of them. In addition to the regularly enrolled classes 75 girls attended the girls' movies Saturday afternoon

Several regular instructors are engaged in the work of the Auxiliary, while a large number of local volunteers make the extensive work possible. Inquiries regarding any phases of the work will be cheerfully answered at the Y. M. C. A., in the Westminster Building.

STATE NEWS

Williamsburg—Nine husky members of the William and Mary College football squad will act as a bodyguard to President Warren G. Harding when he visits nad speaks at the college Wednesday.

Football warriors who were sworn in today by Clerk Geddy, of the James City County Circuit Court, as deputy Sheriffs for the Harding party, are: J. S. Wilson, captain; Harwood, and Dietz, ends; John Todd, Williams and Bennett, tackles, and Lionel Levy, Hastings and Joice Levy, backfield men. All-told, fifty students will compose the force of deputy sheriffs on duty for the Harding festivities.

Danville—The mystery in the epidemic of typhoid fever in Danville.(which was baffled the local health authorities for months, with a gradually rising tide of new cases, has been solved, but the source of infection has not been given out. Dr. R. W. Garnett admitted this evening that all anxiety had been allayed, and that the focus of infection has been discovered. He said that Richard Messer and L. A. Enslow, engineers of the state board of health, and not completed their full report on the examination, and that he was not in a position to give out the slightest information until that is done. The report, he said, would be ready tomorrow.

Danville—Announcement will be made at the annual Virginia Methodist Conference, which meets in Richmond on Wednesday, of the gift just made by W. R. Fitzgerald to the Methodists of Danville of the orphanage building, which was recently closed. Formal receptance of the gift has already been made by representatives of all the local Methodist churches and the orphanage will become a home for aged and dependent women of that denomination to be controlled by a board of governors drawn from the local churches.

Bristol—Deputy Sheriff Charles Sell announced late last night that a man named Moody, arrested this afternoon in connection with the killing of an alleged moonshiner, and the serious wounding of Deputy Sheriff J. W. Mosby, near Kingsport, had been removed from the jail at Kingsport after a mob formed there.

VA. DEFEATS CADETS

University Scores 14 Points to V. M. I's. 7

In the greatest gridiron battle in the history of Lexington, the University of Virginia defeated the V. M. I. Cadets, 14 to 7, wiping out last year's defeat and regaining a supremacy that has been hers for years.

The victory was the fourteenth registered by the Virginians over the Cadets out of the seventeen contests staged between the two teams The Virginians outplayed the Cadets in practically every department of the game and V. M. I.'s lone score came in the first quarter after a recovered fumble. Witt failed to hold a punt which rolled away from him as he was tackled and Hunt grabbed it up and rolled across the line.

The seating capacity of the V. M. I's. new alumni field was totally inadequate to accommodate the crowd which piled up banks overlooking the seats, and surged close to the side lines. The V. M. I. supters staged a snake dance on the field rooters looked on with envy, but after the whistle, Virginia supporters took the field and headed by their band, continued their march into Lexington.

Virginia outclassed V. M. I. on the offensive and for fifty minutes out of the sixty played, kept the ball in Cadet teritory, Virginia gained a total of 258 yards, against V. M. I's. 172, making fourteen first downs to V. M. I's. five. V. M. I. excelled on forward passes, completing seven out of twelve. They completed four in their last desperate effort to tie the score in the final second of the game.

TO BOOST GOOD ROAD

Plans have been completed for a big mass meeting which will be held next Tuesday night at Annandale Hall, Fairfax county, in the interest of the construction of the Little River Turnpike. Among those expected to address the meeting are Representative R. Walton Moore, Governor Westmoreland Davis, Mayor J. M. Duncan and others. A delegation of representatives of the chamber of commerce of this city, will attend.

The meeting will start promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

The road to be improved is between this city and Fairfax Courthouse, and is a distance of about fourteen miles.

Two Juries To Probe Shooting of Briscoe

Alexandria City and Fairfax County Clash Over Coroner's Authority At Investigation Last Night

FIRST INNING HAD BY CITY

Jury After Hearing The Testimony of Six Witnesses Gives Verdict That Briscoe Died From Gunshot Wound Inflicted by Wm. Oehlert—Fairfax to Hold Another Inquest—Jury From Fairfax Impaneled Last Night After Alexandria Jury Finished.

Immediately after a coroner's jury from this city, summoned by Dr. T. M. Jones, had held an inquest last night over the remains of Henry Briscoe, who died at the Alexandria Hospital Sunday night from the effects of a bullet wound alleged to have been inflicted by William H. Oehlert, of this city, in walked another jury from Fairfax county which viewed the same body and was adjourned over by Acting Commonwealth's Attorney Wilson Farr, of Fairfax county to meet at Fairfax Courthouse one day this week for the purpose of holding another inquest.

Attorney Farr accompanied by Coroner W. L. Robey, of Herndon, Fairfax County arrived while the inquest was in progress. Mr. Farr questioned Dr. T. Marshall Jones regarding the inquest and asked if the jury was taking an account of the testimony. This was not being done. A few minutes afterward Mr. Farr had Coroner Robey impanel a jury from the residents of Fairfax county who had come in. This was done by Sheriff J. R. Allison and the Fairfax jury viewed the body.

All the witneesses who testified last night again will have to testify before the Fairfax coroner's jury. The Fairfax jury is composed of the following: A .D. Kirby, H. H. Blunt, E. E. Sisson, Fred Albaugh, F. B. Roach, J. B. Van Peit.

The Alexandria jury after hearing the testimony of six witnesses returned a verdict as follows: "We, the jury, find that said Henry Briscoe came to his death from the effects of a gun shot wound inflicted by William Oehlert about 9:30 o'clock, p. m., October 15, 1921, near the Camp Humphreys road, near the residence of Pierce Reed in the county of Fairfax, Va., and died at Alexandria Hospital in the city of Alexandria, October 16, 1921 about 6:30 p. m.

The jury was composed of the following: M. P. Pitts, foreman; John McCuer, John W. Garner, E. H. Lewis, James L. Foster, W. K. Griffith.

Dr. S. B. Moore, who attended Briscoe described the bullet wounds to the jury ! Witness Briscoe was shot two times in the back.

R. P. Cralle of Fairfax County, who was driving the truck Briscoe and H. L. Hibbs were occupants testified that he pulled up to a by road and stopped in order to let Briscoe get a letter from a mail box. In the mean time the car of of Richard Stuart drew up and Stuart asked what did I mean by cutting across the road in front of him. He said, declared witness, that it looked as if witness was trying to tear his car up. Cralle said there were no cross words, and the talk was very friendly.

In the meantime the car driven by Oehlert, came up, he said, and Oehlert got out of his car and got on the running board of Stuart's machine and asked what the trouble was. At that time, the witness said, he and his two companions were standing in the rear of Oehlert's car. Oehlert returned and remarked "Don't touch my car." Witness then said that Oehlert pulled a pistol and then a second one and repeated his first statement. Witness said that Richard Burnett urged Oehlert to put away the gun. Oehlert after getting into his own car and starting, fired five shots from the back of his car, he said, two of which struck Briscoe and three of which went wild. Briscoe, he said started toward the truck and exclaimed "Dick, I am shot."

FLEES AT PISTOL SHOT

A pistol shot fired at 2:30 o'clock this morning by Richard Gibson from his residence in Rosemont, caused an automobile thief to jump from his machine and beat a hasty retreat. Mr. Gibson was unable to say whether the man was white or colored.

The door of the garage was unlocked and the automobile thief simply walked into the garage and picked out Mr. Gibson's machine and started the engine running. The noise of the engine aroused Mr. Gibson from his slumbers. He hastily went to the window armed with his trusty pistol and there saw the thief struggling with his machine to get its run, the robber having gotten it out of the garage.

The thief, however, had failed to reckon that the steering gear of the machine was locked.

One pistol shot fired in the air by Mr. Gibson resulted in an unusually hasty retreat by the would-be thief. Mr. Gibson came down stairs after dressing and placed his machine back in the garage. In the future this thief will doubtless give Mr. Gibson's garage a wide berth.

U.S. CONTROL IS AIMED AT, SAYS ERIE PRESIDENT

Underwood Says Walkout Directed Against Labor Board, Not Lines

TRUCKS TO BE USED

Preparations Being Made To Utilize Motor Trucks and Airplanes if Necessary.

New York, Oct. 18.—F. D. Underwood, president of the Erie Railroad, last night expressed the hope that the strike actually would occur.

"This is the time and the place for it," he declared, adding that the strike was one against the "umpire," or the United States Railroad Labor Board.

"It should be understood," said Mr. Underwood, "that the present strike movement so prominently before the public, analyzed, amounts to this: It is different from any other strike in that it is not directed against railways, but against the verdict of a body constituted by Congress, which, after a hearing, fixed wages, not at the instance of the interested parties, but founded on conditions developed by evidence

"The real purpose is not appreciated by some of us. It is to bring about Government control—the desire of all labor bodies, some part of

SECOND OF SERIES AT M. P. CHURCH

The second meeting of the series of special meetings now being held in the Methodist Protestant Church was well attended and of great spiritual interest. The sermon was preached by Rev. D. H. Martin, of Trinity M. E. Church from Genesis 4th chapter, 9th verse. Subject; "Am I My Brothers Keeper?" Was very appealing to all and great interest was taken. Two solos by Miss Annie Roberts, of Philadelphia before and after the sermon were highly appreciated.

The combined choirs of the two churches added greatly to the services in the singing of well selected Hymns and were of great spiritual interest.

Tonight Rev. G. I. Humphreys, a former pastor of the church will deliver the sermon and everyone who can possibly to do so are requested to come out to greet him and may rest assured they will be well repaid.

The balance of the week on Wednesday night the Rev. E. T. Kirkley will be present and deliver the sermon On Thursday Rev J. G. Greene, of Mt. Olivet, will preach Friday night Rev. W. P. Roberts of Baltimore will be present and it is earnestly hoped that all members and friends of the two churches as well as the friends and members of other churches, regardless of demonination, are invited to attend. A special invitation is given to all who are connected with no church at present to attend these services.

TODAY'S THOUGHT No man ever wetted clay and then left it, as if there would be bricks by chance and fortune.

THREE MUSKETEERS

We have had occasion to remark in these columns more than once that the Movie Stage is as yet in its infancy. There appear a thousand pictures on the dead level of mediocrity. Not unlike a vast plain in winter with a twilight horizon, nothing but drear monotony in the foreground or in the distance. The eye tires and the soul sickens. Endless melodrama, buried in the nauseous play of sex-motif, loathsome in the false lumination of the human passions, or ghastly with the tawdry coarseness of slapstick comedy,—these are but too often the dramas of the screen. But now and then there flashes, like a meteor across the silence of this mimic world a picture-play with all the elements of genius. Such a play is the "Three Musketeers," and the man who has electrified it with true histrionic talent is Douglas Fairbanks.

Alexander Dumas, the elder, that strange waif out of the West Indies, a compound of the Caucasian and the African, wrote the immortal work from which the visions on the silver screen take their origin. A work which, for nearly a century, has ranked easily among the first half-dozen romances which have enchanted the mind or enthralled the imagination of civilized man. A work, too, without a suggestion of impurity. A work that deals with all the powerful forces and motives and impulses and desires that actuate human endeavor, and still can be read by children of seven or seventy with equal delight and equal innoxion.

The dramatization is not perfect—far from it. But Douglas Fairbanks fairly scintillates as D'Artagnan. His own genius is allied to the genius of Dumas, and the two bridge over the gaps and weak spots of the screen dramatist. The supporting company is unusually good. Louis XIII is excellently done; Cardinal Richelieu entirely acceptable; the Grey Cardinal, true to the life; the Queen, a faithful portrayal of the lovely but unhappy Austrian princess; Constance, a most charming creature, worthy of the love of D'Artagnan; Athos, Porthos, and Aramis, the ideal three guardsmen; and Lady de Winter as fascinating and beautiful as we might expect. The mise-en-scene is wonderfully correct; and the costumes and manners all that the imagination has conceived as appropriate to the time and place.

We would advise those, however—if such there be—who have not read the romance in a good translation, to do so—and then see the play.

We are sure that our accommodating book-sellers, the Dysons, will gladly order the book, and we have asked our friends, Steele and Reed, to arrange for the screen, if not now, as soon as may be.

Misses Sarah and Charlotte Kemper are entertaining at a shower this afternoon for Miss Anne Cabell, whose marriage to Ensign Ferguson Bryan will take place the twenty-second.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Hopkins are entertaining at a dinner party this evening in honor of the wedding party of their daughter, Miss Julia Hopkns, whose marriage to Mr. Arthur Harrison Saunders will take place tomorrow. Miss Collins Jones will be maid of honor for Miss Hopkins, and Dr. Hopkins, of Richmond, will be best man for Mr. Saunders.

Two Juries to Probe Shooting

Cralle said he sat beside the truck, and witness said, that afterward he brought Briscoe to the hospital in the truck. Witness was unable to say where Oehlert got the second gun.

H. L. Hibbs, of Washington, practically corraborated the testimony of Cralle.

Richard Stuart was called to the stand, witness, however, decined to testify on the advice of his council, Attorney Charles Henry Smith.

Richard C. Burnett told the jury he was in the car with Oehlert having gone out Saturday night for a drive at the suggestion of Oehlert.

After describing the route taken he told of the car of Oehlert stopping and of Oehlert getting out and he heard Oehlert subsequently say "Don't put your hands on my car". Oehlert afterward fired his pistol into a trench nearby and then pulled another pistol, said the witness. Burnet said he warned Oehlert not to start any trouble. Oehlert fired from the back of his own car after getting into it, said Burnett. According to witness stones were thrown at Oehlert's car and then it was that Oehlert fired.

Witness said as far as he knew none of the stones struck Oehlert Burnett also testified that he saw two guns and he knew Oehlert got one from his pocket. He added that he did not think this was the gun Oehlert did the shooting with. Burnett was unable to say positively whether or not Oehlert's car was in motion at the time. Witness also was unable to say whether or not Oehlert took aim when he fired.

Edward Patterson testified that he rode down to Camp Humphreys that night with Stuart and was driving the car back. Witness told of Stuart suggesting to stop and see what the cause of the stopping of the other car in the road was. Practically everything had been settled up when up came Oehlert who he said wanted to know what was the matter. Oehlert he said came up to the side. Afterward witness said he drove the car towrds town and subsequently Oehlert's car passed him and later Oehlert's car stopped on the Hunting Creek road and Stuart got out and talked to Oehlert. No mention was made of any shooting and witness said he did not hear the conversation that went on.

Attorneys who were present at the inquest were Charles Henry Smith, Richard Stuart, Edmund Burke, representing Oehlert and Smith and Wools representing Patterson.

Acting Commonwealth's Attorney Wilson Farr stated today to a representative of the Gazette that there was no feeling in the case, he simply desired to have a Fairfax jury investigate the case in order that he might have complete record of the case in Fairfax county. The record of the proceedings of the local jury he declared would be filed here and the record of the jury of Fairfax county would be filed in that county.

At the conclusion of of the investigation last night Richard Stuart accompanied Sheriff Allison to Fairfax Attorney Charles Henry Smith is arranging to have bond given for Stuart.

Big Pageant at Christ Church Tonight

by four lines spoken by the Appeal of the Human Spirit, as follows:

A. H. S.—For all their labor and their faithfulness
We gratefully ascribe our joyful praise
To thee, Thou ever glorious Trinity,
With Whom all things begin and all things end.

Congregation—Glory be to the Father, and the Son, and to the Holy Ghost: As it was in the beginning is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

After the Historical Memorial is finished, the Sanctus will be sung, during which the Congregation will kneel.

The Kinds of Mission Work—This part represents the three kinds of Missionary work: (1) Medical; (2) Educational; Hymn 359; (3) Evangelistic or Pastoral; and also recognizes a fourth, Support, in leading up to an Historical Memorial of the work of the Woman's Auxiliary, delivered by the Appeal of the Human Spirit. This Memorial also closes with the same four lines, and the Gloria Patri, sung by the Congregation.

Hymn 254—"From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

Mission People and Congregation—And we, too—will hearken to His Call.
We, too, will give what time and toil we can,
And of our wealth or poverty a part;
We, too, will daily pray for Mission Work.
Amen.

Hymn—In the Cross of Christ I Glory.

V. D. M.—That there may be One Fold and One Shepherd.

The Congregation join with(all the others in saying The Creed.

V. D. M.—The kingdoms of this world are became the Kingdoms of our Lord, and of His Christ; and He shall reign forever and ever.

Congregation—Amen.

The voice of Divine Mediation says. Let us pray, and leads the Congregation in saying The Lord's Prayer.

Recessional 450—"All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

The three Presidents of the Auxiliary are Mrs. West, Grace Church, Mrs. O'Brien, St. Paul's Church, Mrs. Buddin, Christ Church. Mrs. Minnegerode Andrews is the artistic director and Miss Cummings is chairman of the whole.

The gates on both Washington and Columbus streets will be open to the public at 7:30 p. m. Some of the Alexandria Light Infantry will guard the path from the Parish Hall to the platform and some of them will take part in the pageant.

The choir will lead the singing and the hymns are very familiar so an opportunity will be given the community to join in the singing as well as to recite the creed and the Lord's prayer, and the more beautiful and impressive it will be.

the Treaty of Versailles. It was defeated, 66 to 7. Walsh's two amendments were designed to pledge this nation to join other powers in protecting Germany from unjustified aggression. They were defeated, 71 to 7 and 62 to 6.

Ten Democrats are expected to vote with the Republicans. They are Ransdell, Broussard, Walsh, (Massachusetts), Gerry, Myers, Underwood, Hitchcock, Fletcher, Shields and Pomerene.

Among those classified as uncertain are Kendrick, Ashurst and Trammell.

The estimates of 29 votes against the treaty includes 25 Democrats and Borah, La Follette, Norris and Ladd, Republicans. This is four more than is conceded by the Republican leaders.

Senator Lodge and his lieutenants ecmleted all arrngements for the final test of strength. Pairs were obtained for every absentee, thus giving the Republicans the benefit of all their available forces.

Notice was given by Lodge that he will press for a final vote before adjournment tomorrow night. He will ask the Senate to remain in session until a disposal of the treaties has been made. This in itself indicates that the Republicans feel sure. Otherwise there would be delay until Senator Knox's successor arrives and qualifies. Notification of Crowe's selection reached Republican leaders this afternoon.

The name of former President Wilson figured largely in the discussions among the Democrats. His friends sought to have all the Democrats stand together against the treaty as a logical sequence to their votes on the Versailles treaty and the League. His foes pleaded that there should be no partisanship.

The result indicates that neither of these arguments had much effect. Hitchcock, who led the fight for the Harding treaty, and Reed, the bitterest antagonist of the former President's idea is against it.

Odd Fellows Plan Big Parade

Fellows' Hall on North Columbus street, and the route will be as follows: North on Columbus to Oronoco, east on Oronoco to Washington, south on Washington to Cameron, east on Cameron to Royal, south on Royal to King, west on King to Alfred, north on Alfred to Queen, east on Queen to Columbus, south on Columbus, passing the reviewing stand in front of Odd Fellows' Hall, after which the procession will disband on Cameron street, both east and west sides.

Past Masters expected are Hill Montague, Ross Southward, Richmond; W. D. Hill, South Boston, and Roland E. Chase, Clintwood.

Other distinguished visitors expected are Governor Westmoreland Davis, Senator Claude A. Swanson, Attorney General of Virginia W. A. Saunders, Representative Andrew J. Montague. Owing to the fact that E. Lee Trinkle, democratic nominee for governor, will speak Thursday at Woodstock, Va., he will be unable to be present.

The Northern Virginia Odd Fellows' Association recently was organized for the promotion of fraternity in this section of the state. Large delegations are expected from Alexandria, Accotink, Falls Church, Clarendon, Lorton, Dumfries, Independent Hill, Leesburg, Lovettsville, Culpeper, Manassas.

Other visitors expected are W. S. Gregory, grand master in Virginia; Samuel Prangeer, grand master in Maryland; Bert T. Wolf, grand master in the District of Columbia; H. H. Harlow, Staunton, grand warden; T. Wiley Davis, Richmond, grand secretary; M. B. Ferguson, Richmond, grand treasurer; L. H. Drew, grand patriarch; Major B. L. Creasey, Roanoke; A. L. Mason, Lynchburg, grand representatives; Col. Charles Pohlig, Richmond.

the public and some members of Congress.

"Railroad labor has the idea that under Government control they are better off; naturally they are for it A leader of the railway conductors, when asked why his men preferred Government control, said: "Because the conditions are better and the discipline not so sharp."

"This is an interesting thing for the public—the users of the railroads, whose money pays the railroad employe. Their safety depends largely upon the discipline, which is not a thing to be trifled with.

"We are back at the old junction. Are a minority to starve and inconvenience their paymasters—the public—for the reason that a board of umpires, on which they (the men) were represented, fail to suit their views?

"It is really a Government affair, inasmuch as both rates and conditions were inaugurated by a tribunal entirely apart from the railroads."

Mr. Underwood said there need be no fear that the mails would not be carried.

New York braced itself today to meet the threatened rail strike.

Coastwise steamship lines, working individually, prepared to meet extra burdens which might be imposed on them by a rush of freight and passengers to sea, after transportation by rail had been denied them. More frequent sailings might be needed in the opinion of shipping men.

AH! EPSOM SALTS LIKE LEMONADE NOW

You can now buy epsomsalts without that awful taste and nausea, by asking your druggist for a handy package of "Epsomade Salts" which looks and acts exactly like epsom salts, because it is real epsom salts combined with fruit derivative salts, giving it the thaste of sparkling lemonade.

Take a tablespoonful in a glass of cold water whenever you feel bilious, headachy of constipated. "Epsomade Salts" is the much talked of discovery of the American Epsom Association.

EVERLASTING FRENCH AMITY!

The Baltimore Patriot says "The Fourth of July was celebrated by the Americans in Paris, Bordeaux and Nantz—The toasts drank on the occasion at Paris have been published, and are truly spirited and patriotic."

This is all the notice the Patriot takes of these "Spirited and patriotic" toasts; the spirit seems to be strongly French to be admitted even into the patriot. The Whig, however, more bold, has published them without hesitation—and the spirit which animated the toasters may be proved by the following selection:

"The EMPEROR OF FRANCE and KING OF ITALY, the EMPRESS REGENT and their family."

"Mr. Jefferson, late Paresident of the United States" given by Mr. Consul General Warden.

"Mr. Monroe, Secretary of State," by Mr. Nesbit.

"Everlasting amity between France and the United States: may we never forget that in the dark hours of aeversity she generously stretched forth her hand to free us from the tyranny of Britain." This sentiment ascribing to France the glory of independence. was by A. Woodruff, of Philadelphia.

IN MEMORIAM

MASON—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear daughter, LOUISE MASON, who departed this life three years ago today, October 18, 1918.

Death has robbed me of my daughter
Of the one we loved so well,
Taken her from this world of sorow
Safely home with him to dwell.

When I saw my dear daughter,
Whom I tendered with such care,
Slowly failing from my presence,
How my aching heart despaired.

When the evening shades are gathering,
And I sit all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing,
If she could only come home.

Our home is so sad and lonely,
Life shall never be the same,
My heart will go on aching,
Until in Heaven we meet again.

248-1p. Father and Mother.

IN MEMORIAM

Sacred to the memory of my beloved granddaughter, LOUISE MASON, who entered into rest 3 years ago today, October 18, 1918

Every day brings back memories,
Every memory brings a tear,
Deep so deep within our hearts we cherish,
The thought of one we loved so dear.

Your death so sudden, but by God's will,
Which to us makes it sadder still,
And the only consolation to an aching heart,
Is that we will not always remain apart.

By her devoted grandmother, and family, Mrs. Geo. E. Sutton. 248-1p.

CHURCH WIDE SURVEY HOME MISSION WORK

Nashvile, Tenn., Oct. 18.—Rev. A. C. Sumbrennen, city survey secretary of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, with headquarters at Nashville, Tenn., has worked out a scinetific and pracical plan for making a church wide survey of conditions throughout Southern Methodist territory in the United States

According to Mr. Sumbrunnen, the result of his survey will be presented to the general conference at its approaching session in May, 1922, in the form of a memorial asking that a great campaign of occupation be planned and the next ten years be devoted to strengthening the home mission work. The survey was prepared at the request of home mission secretaries who felt that one of the chief difficulties in dealing with the home mission problem was due to lack of information as to needs, where they were located, and how to meet them.

Through the home mission officials, the general conference will be asked to make proper legislation authorizing an intnesive campaign in home mission fields which shall have for its objects first, bringing up to 100 per cent efficiency all the work in the territory now occupied; second, to occupy adequately the unreached territory within the bounds of the Southern Methodist Church.

Mr. Sumbrunnen says, "This program should extend over the next ten years. We must know all our fields, as to buildings, men, and money. There is too much waste land both in city and country. Our ideal is that every parish, charge and district line, shall touch every other parish, charge and district line; thus in time elimnating the great unreached areas within our connection."

Rev. Robert H. Ruff, of the North Mississippi conference is associated with Mr. Sumbrunnen in his work having direction of the survey of rural sections.

Dyed Her Wrap Blue And a Skirt Brown

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple any woman can dye or tint her worn, shabby dresses, skirts, waists, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings, draperies, hangings, everything, even if she has never dyed before. Buy "Diamond Dyes"—no other kind—their perfect home dyeing is sure because Diamond Dyes are guaranted not to spot, fade, streak, or run. Tell yonr druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, of wether it is linen, cotton or mixed goods.

THAT COMMON AILMENT OF ALL MANKIND

commonly called "hunger" should be a three-times-a-day treatment. You know that old saying—it's better to pay the butcher than the doctor—not that we begrudge the M. D. any business, because he's one of our best customers.

Rheumatism Can Be Cured
But You Must Clear Your Blood of Waste Products.

Lack of exercise and improper diet cause waste products to accumulate in the blood. You will at once realize that unless the blood is pure, some part of the body will become diseased.

Rheumatism, with its pain and agony, is one of the most serious diseases caused by waste products in the blood. You know, of course, the blood is not confined alone to the arteries and veins. It passes out of these channels to all parts of the body. This is how sediments or waste products are deposited in the muscles and joints. Genuine relief can be had only by correcting the basic trouble—waste products.

Thousands and thousands of men and women during the past 50 years have cleared their blood of waste products with S. S. S. It is the ideal remedy for rheumatism, because it removes the poisonous waste matter which is causing the trouble. There are no bad after effects and the result is wonderful. Begin taking S. S. S. today and write for 56 page illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood"—free.

Personal medical advice, without charge, may also be had by sending a complete description of your case. Address Chief Medical Director, Swift Specific Co., 73 S. S. S. Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga. All good drug stores sell S. S. S.

YES, and they're bringing you the biggest news you've heard since war was declared! It's a wonderful new bread—FA-MUS—a great big, NEW loaf of bread that's different from any you've ever tasted before! And it's made by Holzbeierlein, whose delicious cakes have been delighting your palate—and your grandfather's palate—for more than 24 years.

Remember when Holzbeierlein put out his first loaf of bread? Well—it didn't quite measure up to the Holzbeierlein standard of quality and taste.

So what did we do? We simply set about improving the quality of this bread so that it would be absolutely unsurpassed in crispy-brown deliciousness, in health-building wholesomeness, and in the good, old-fashioned HOME-MADE flavor.

The result is: FA-MUS Bread—a distinctly new and different kind of bread—as delicious and tasty a loaf as scientific baking skill has been able to develop.

Special Notice: Dr. Frederick Jacobson says that phosphates are just as essential to any woman who tires easily, is nervous or irritable, worn out or looks haggard and pale, to make a strong, robust, vigorous, healthful body, as they are to make corn, wheat or any vegetable plant grow strong and healthy. The lack of Phosphate is the cause of all enemic conditions and the administration of 5-grain Argo-Phosphate Tablets will increase the strength and endurance 500 per cent in a few weeks time in many instances.

Courtship and Marriage

(For the Gazette)

Five human heads must be held as trophies by the man of Formosa who would woo and win a wife.

A Laplander who marries a girl against the will of her parents is deemed guilty of a serious crime, and the punishment for it is very severe

On the day after the marriage ceremony the native bridegroom of West Africa shows his appreciation of his wife by powdering her head with fine clay.

In Turkestan every wedding engagement begins with the payment of a substantial consideration to the girl's parents. If a girl jilts her lover the engagement gift has to be returned unless the parents have another daughter to give as a substitute.

Women of means inAssam are permitted to choose a temporary husband, and, when tired of him, pay him off and take another.

In Sweden it is a popular custof for a bride to fill her pockets with bread, which she hands to every one she meets on her way to church. Every piece she disposes of is supposed to avert a misfortune.

In parts of the Tyrol the bride's mother gives her daughter what is known as the "tearkerchief," woven in fine linen, with which she is supposed to dry her eyes at the ceremony Afterward she puts this away, and it is not used again until it is laid over her face when she is dead.

For a period of seven years after the wedding an ancient Armenian custom prohibits the bride from speaking to any man except her husband.

The bride in northern Mongolia is not contracted to her husband-to-be until after the woman's parents have agreed upon the number of dogs they will pay as her dowry.

CALOMEL SALIVATES EVEN WHEN CAREFUL

Treacherous Drug Can Not Be Trusted and Next Dose may start Trouble

Calomel is dangerous. It may salivate you and make you suffer fearfully from soreness of gums, tenderness of jaws and teeth, swollen tongue and excessive saliva dribbling from the mouth. Don't trust calomel. It is mercury; quicksilver.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA:

In the Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, Anozella Simms, complainant vs. Halfred H. Simms, defendant. In Chancery No. 1882.

An affidavit having been filed that the defendant is a non-resident of this State, and the Sergeant having made such return upon process issued herein, upon written application stating defendant's last known post office address and place of abode, the following order of publication upon grounds therein stated is entered.

The object of this suit is to obtain for Complainant a limited divorce from the Defendant on the grounds of wilful and voluntary desertion and abandonment and that upon the passage of the statutory period of three years, same may be merged into an absolute divorce from the bonds of matrimony, and for general relief.

It is ordered in the name of the Commonwealth of Virginia that the defendant appear here within ten days after due publication hereof and do what is necessary to protect defendant's interest in this suit, and that this order be also published, posted and mailed to defendant according to law.

But the Perfection will provide instant heat—economically

And the Perfection is unusually economical now for Aladdin Security Oil costs only about half of its former price.

Over a million families are economizing on coal by heating their homes selectively. They keep the whole house warm with the regular coal heater and use a Perfection, "the portable radiator," to make drafty halls, bay windows and living rooms comfortable and safe.

The Perfection supplies heat instantly, just where you want it, when you need it. No fuel waste, easy to carry about. It is ornamental and durable. It burns for 10 hours on a single gallon of kerosene.

Then, too, the Perfection has a score of practical uses in every home, such as drying clothes on rainy days, heating small amounts of water, warming baby's milk.

Hardware, housefurnishing and department stores sell the Perfection. Let your dealer explain its sturdy construction and smokeless wick adjustment.

A Tale of Centipedes and Millipedes.

THE four Brownies had been playing.

They had banked up a tiny thread of water that was trickling down through the ferns and rocks near the End-of-the-Earth, and to do this they had had to carry ever so many pebbles and place them in just the right spot. It wasn't long before they had quite a deep pool of water to swim in.

But now they were tired and had flung themselves on the ground around the Wishing Fairy for a nice long talk. Even Pimzie, who is always ready for anything, felt tired, and as for lazy Lorykins—he was fast asleep!

When they had been heaving and hauling stones one of them had discovered a small animal that lay hidden under a pebble. It looked more like a long, thin worm than anything else, whose body was divided into a lot of rings or segments.

When the Brownies found it it was curled into a circle.

"Just what could it have been?" Snookums asked the Fairy, after he had described it to her.

"Did it have legs?"

"Did it have legs!" giggled Pimzie. "I should say it did. It must have had a million."

But, of course, that was an exaggeration.

"Well," Stella said after thinking a moment, "it must have been either a Millipede or a Centipede."

"What funny names!" exclaimed Pimzie, stretching himself where he lay full length on the grass. "What do they mean?"

"Hundred Feet and Thousand Feet," was the answer. "Only instead of saying feet we say legs. For instance," the Fairy continued, "we often speak of a Thousand Leg."

"I wish," exclaimed Snookums, "that we knew just which one of the two it was we found under the stones to-day. It must have been one or the other."

"I'll tell you what I'll do," Stella said, "I'll draw a picture of both of them; then you will recognize your little friend."

"It was no friend of mine!" exclaimed Snookums. "I didn't like his looks at all, I can tell you. But just the same, that was a good idea of yours, Stella, dear. Draw them both for us."

The Brownies crowded around the Fairy as she drew, that is, all but lazy Lorykins. He was far too sleepy.

Stella picked a blade of grass which in some magic way turned into a tiny pencil in her hand.

"That's the one we saw," Pimzie and Snookums both cried out together, pointing to the picture.

"That's a Millipede," said Stella. "It's perfectly harmless. It lives in moist places either in old wood which it feeds on or hidden (as it was when you uncovered it) under stones. As its name indicates, it has more legs than a Centipede.

"The Centipede, on the other hand, is very dangerous; so much so that its poison kills insects and other small animals, and is often known to be quite harmful to Humans. Centipedes are found in warm countries. They dislike the light and live in dark places under the bark of trees. They even hide in houses."

"What do they eat?" Snookums asked. "Dead leaves and bark—like Millipedes?"

"No," Stella answered; "they generally feed on insects and worms. Sometimes," she added, "they are almost a foot long."

"Goodness!" exclaimed Snookums. "And just imagine how fast they must be able to walk with so many legs."

"Yes," and the little Fairy smiled. "They can run backward just as well and just as quickly as forward."

"Well, all I can say," cried Pimzie, "is that I'm awfully glad that it was only a harmless little three-inch Millipede that we came across. Things might have been otherwise if it had been a Centipede."

EPISCOPAL CAMPAIGN

Richmond, Oct. 18.—If the Diocese of Virginia is to attain the goal set by the Nation-Wide Campaign, now underway throughout the country, it will give at least ten young men to the Christian ministry of the Episcopal Church. Of the twenty-six new students at the Virginia Theological Seminary here this session only seven according to the Rev. Berryman Green D. D., dean of the historic institution, are from the Old Dominion. It is asked, also, that ten young people volunteer for the work in addition to a number in each parish who are expected to help as Sunday School teachers, leaders of organizations and choir singers.

That the campaign is well under way is proved by the number of mass meetings which are being held in all parts of the Diocese under the supervision of the bishop and Rev. G. M. Brydon, chairman of the executive committee and general director of the enterprise. Those in authority are confident that Virginia will more than attain its quota of $270,000, as was true last year but they are eager to have it understood that the movement is as much for the enrichment of the spirit of the church as for the filling of its treasury.

Education, the colored and mountain work and the assistance of the struggling parishes through the furnishing of neccessary equipment are among the achievements of the campaign, as well as the greater spreading of the Gospel in foreign lands.

ANOTHER WOMAN ESCAPES

Mrs. McCumber Avoided a Serious Operation by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Time

Georgetown, Ill.—"After my first baby was born I suffered so with my left side that I could not walk across the floor unless I was all humped over, holding to my side. I doctored with several doctors but found no relief and they said I would have to have an operation. My mother insisted on my taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon found relief. Now I can do all my own work and it is the Vegetable Compound that has saved me from an operation. I cannot praise your medicine too highly and I tell all of my friends and neighbors what the Compound did for me." — Mrs. MARGARET MCCUMBER, 27 S. Frazier St., Georgetown, Illinois.

Mrs. McCumber is one of the unnumbered thousands of housewives who struggle to keep about their daily tasks, while suffering from ailments peculiar to women with backache, sideaches, headaches, bearing-down pains and nervousness,—and if every such woman should profit by her experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial they would get well.

"STANDARD" Motor Gasoline —the Four-Season Fuel

COLD weather will soon bring troubles to the motorist using hit-or-miss gasoline. Carburetor adjustment is always a more delicate problem in severe weather. Ignition in a cold engine is difficult enough, even under the most favorable conditions. Winter motoring requires a uniform, dependable fuel. Fortunately, it is to be had.

Because of its derivation—the selected, refined product of many grades and types of crude—"Standard" Motor Gasoline possesses the ideal balance of properties. This balance makes it quick-firing, even in the coldest weather, clean burning always. Its uniformity insures a thorough mixture in the carburetor at all seasons. Its consistent use releases the maximum of steady, smooth power, winter and summer alike. It is the best gasoline you can buy at any price—yet it costs no more than any other.

For many years our Development Department experts have been working to improve this fuel, which you can obtain anywhere within the field served by the Standard Oil Co. (N. J.). As "Standard" Motor Gasoline is today the best gasoline obtainable, it will be our effort in years to come to incorporate every new discovery of value into the commercial product—to keep "Standard" Motor Gasoline always the best.

Why invite trouble by using unknown gasoline or so-called substitutes?

Polarine is the ideal lubricant.
